

30 Second Self Improvement: Discover a quick and easy self improvement book that can inspire, motivate and help guarantee your future health & happiness.

You may have heard that success is a combination of perspiration and inspiration. This book is about developing the inspiration that drives the personal belief that you can succeed. The road to self improvement is cluttered with mental obstacles that can slow your progress or derail your efforts. When you understand that you often create those obstacles with thoughts of self doubt and fear, then you can start to remove and replace them by consistently choosing what to think. Its your brain, and its your choice to fill your mind with thoughts that build confidence and promote your well being. If you have the ability to think , then you qualify for this opportunity. Practice does not make perfect, but somewhat normal is still a worthy goal, and it only takes half a minute now and then. It may be the most productive 30 seconds of your day.
