

..Donna had always romanced about the city and what it would bring, the reality was, once she was there it lost all the glimmer and hype that was in her mind. She wanted it all, the nice home, the nice car, a good job. Mr. Delco had hired her personally. The interview was done over the phone. She was provided an apartment, a company car and a small expense allowance to get started. It was more than she expected, she did not even know what this man looked like, she did not care; she just wanted the job and a way to get out of the cow town she grew up in. She had no idea how close she would get to having everything she wanted and more.. This is a romantic short story collection content only suitable for adults.
