

Justice Reborn (Cowboy Justice Association Book 8)

In one instant Everything in Josie Carltons world changed. Shed been living a quiet, unremarkable life and now shes on the run from bad guys who want her dead and police who want to put her behind bars for a crime she didnt commit. She needs to find someplace she can lie low and figure out just what shes going to do. A man figuring out life Evan Davis has left law enforcement behind and is trying to find a new direction and purpose. In the meantime, he has a pile of work that needs to be done around his old, rundown family home. Hiring a secretive and obviously desperate girl straight off the bus doesnt seem like a good idea but something in her pained eyes pulls at his heart. She needs someone to help her and it might as well be him. Its only cleaning a house after all. Until its much more. Josies been told she cant trust a single soul but Evan isnt just anybody. The former US Marshal and small town sheriff isnt a stranger to sticky situations but she hates to pull him back into the life he happily left. But if she wants to stay alive, she may not have a choice.
