

Slick Competition (Beaus Backdoor)

Mitchell Hill might be gay, but working for a business specializing in sexual products for men makes it hard for him...in more ways than one. When his new boss announces a contest to find an innovative product to launch nationally, Mitchell blurs the line between personal and professional by deciding to submit a lubricant he created for himself. One problem--he has to get the approval of his boss's sexy assistant, a man he hasn't been able to stop thinking about, in very carnal ways, since first seeing Kayden Wright. Kayden has heard nothing but insane ideas about products until newcomer Mitchell walks into his office. He's thrilled with the lube idea...and turned-on by the man before him. He always maintains a professional demeanor--he needs this job to deal with the mountain of medical bills piling at his door. But when Mitchell kisses him, he loses his steely control. Not easily willing to trust others, Kayden mistakes innocence for treachery and the two men start a roller-coaster relationship filled with lies, deceit...and smoldering sex.
