

MAIL ORDER BRIDE: A Widows Love

Grace Maroon is a widow, grieving the loss of her sailor husband. He has been lost at sea for nearly a year, and she feels it is best for her and her young son if they move on.

The only problem is, her son, Sam Maroon, doesn't want to move on. He bears his father's name, and he feels the loss deeply. He wants his father to come home, and resents his mother when she moves them both to Montana because a rancher answers her mail order bride ad. But life is not as Grace hopes it will be. She struggles in her relationship with her son and her new husband, and when her son runs away, she wonders if anything will ever be ok again. Will Grace be able to make it through this struggle? Will they find her son before something terrible happens? Will they ever be able to be a family again?

This is a MOB short story and includes 20 western, historical, Christian, clean, MOB short stories by Christian Michael.
