

nikah al mutah zina or sunnah

All the Sahabah including Abu Bakr and Umar - considered mutah to be halal throughout the lifetime of the Prophet, and throughout the rule of Abu Bakr. For most of the era of Umar, all the Sahabah generally affirmed the permissibility of mutah. However, at the end of his caliphate, he made it haram; and that changed everything. The generality of the Sahabah obeyed him; and only a handful remained steadfast in affirming the permissibility of temporary marriage. Some of the Tabiin also proclaimed it halal. However, the number of the pro-mutah elements continued to dwindle among the Ahl al-Sunnah, until none or almost none - accepted it anymore. The Shiis, on their part, have remained unshakable and unyielding on the permissibility of temporary All the Sahabah including Abu Bakr and Umar - considered mutah to be halal throughout the lifetime of the Prophet, and throughout the rule of Abu Bakr.
