

The Secret Me: A Companions Relic

This entry in The Secret Me journal series is a guided questionnaire book designed specifically to be an experience which you share with any number of individuals. The journal poses over a thousand questions which investigate the differences between you and the other people you choose to fill it out with. Best of all? Not a single question requires wordy responses. So one filling it out will never be bogged down with having lots of writing to do. Whether sharing with just one other person or fifty, A Companions Relic offers a fun look at the uniqueness of your relationships. And, once completed, the experience is yours to revisit whenever you please!
