

This is a tale of many adventures and wildlife encounters over 15 years of camping in Northern Tanzania's Parks. A local safari company provides a Land Cruiser with a crew of Driver and Cook, plus all the camping equipment. So 24 hours a day are spent in the bush - and nights can be particularly exciting! This is especially so in isolated Special Campsites where there are no other (human) occupants. Here Lions, Hyenas, Elephants and many other animals are free to roam beside the tents, and nights may be enlivened by unearthly screams. The Camps have experienced fire, flood and marooning in a swamp. There are human encounters en route too, remote hillside farmers living in mud and stick dwellings still work rock-scattered fields with their cattle pulling a single furrow plough. At the edge of Lake Victoria the inhabitants of a small fishing village use traditional handmade dhows to bring home the catch. The Camp cooks over the years have produced wonderful meals over the fire, even baking cakes and bread whilst contending with raids on supplies by Baboons, Monkeys and Hyenas. Many changes in Tanzania have been witnessed, the advent of the mobile phone has revolutionised communications and lives, and new tarmac roads are altering the character of villages first encountered in the last years of the twentieth century.
