Roz trusts her husband Jack. So when she catches him in her photography studio with a naked young woman, she knows there's more here than meets the eye. Turns out the young woman wants to pose for artistic photographs—the euphemism given to naked daguerreotypes sold to soldiers on the western frontier. The young woman isn't the usual naked photograph type. So what's she up to? And why has she involved Jack? Kristine Grayson gives happily ever after her own unique twist!
