

It'll take more than one go-round to win this rodeo of the heart... Thirteen years after her father was killed in a rodeo accident, Samantha Quincannon is facing her worst nightmare. An EMT, she has avoided rodeo duty like the plague. Now her career depends on her ability to face down her fear. Cody Shaw hasn't seen Sam since the night of her father's accident, and their reunion is anything but typical. So is her reaction when a bull ride gone wrong lands him, broke and bleeding, in her reluctant care. And, until he's well enough to travel, in her bed. He knows he's far from a model patient, but would it kill Sam not to act like she'd rather climb on a bull herself than have him underfoot? One thing hasn't changed—their off-the-charts sexual tension. They both put up a good fight, but soon the heat burns through their resistance. Even as Sam fights to protect her heart from the one danger she didn't see coming, something else becomes clear. Rodeo is in Cody's blood, and nothing, not even Sam, can make him quit taking crazy risks. It's up to Sam to decide if she's ready to put on her big-girl boots—and ride.
