The ongoing adventures of detective John Evelyn Thorndyke, M.D. Originally a medical doctor, Dr. Thorndyke turned to the bar and became one of the first forensic scientists--referred to as a medical jurispractitioner. Dr. Thorndyke's solutions were based on the method of collecting all possible data and making inferences from them before looking at any of the protagonists and motives in the crimes. He is usually assisted by his friend, Christopher Jervis and the resourceful Nathaniel Polton, his crinkly-faced lab technician. In this volume: Book One: The Singing Bone aka The Adventures of Dr Thorndyke Five distinct tales of intrigue, romance, mutiny and murder. The ingenuity of these detective stories lies in their fresh and original approach in what amounts to a tantalising read. Book Two: A Silent Witness On a wet and windy silent night in the sleeping city of London, the body of a man is found sprawled across Millfield Lane. An enchanting Dr Thorndyke mystery. Book Three: The Great Portrait Mystery and Other Stories The National Portrait Gallery is the opening setting for this delightful mystery of theft and fraud... Book Four: Helen Vardons Confession Through the open door of a library, Helen Vardon hears an argument that changes her life forever... Full of intrigue and adventure, these classic novels are a must for mystery fans!
