

BWWM Billionaire Romance Novella With Mature Content This is Book Two of a Three-Book Serial. Shawna Franklin has learned from the bitter lessons in life—namely that men can't be trusted and gifts always come with at least one string attached. Even so, deep down, she hopes one day to be proven wrong. She isn't expecting a fairy tale or a handsome prince; but anything other than a Brothers Grimm story and a toad would be nice. Now, she's in a nightmare of her own making. She made a stupid decision and allowed evil back into her life. Her pride overshadowed her good judgment and she's doing everything she can to make things right. To make things worse, her relationship with Rafe seems to be blossoming. He's introduced her into his world and is happy to bring her little brother into it as well. It's what she's always wanted, and now... now she's sure she's sabotaged their love before it even had a chance. They say that desperate times call for desperate measures. She was certainly desperate when she made the choice she did. Regret is a harsh payment. She can only hope it's the only payment she'll be forced to make.
