

On the Wild Side

Sparks fly when opposites attract ... Not wanting to be in Boston on the weekend of her ex-fiances wedding city girl Gillian St. James heads to a cabin on a lake in Maine. She didnt bargain on getting stranded, or on her attraction to the cabins rugged caretaker. At the height of his career, Devon Jackson walked away from his job as a detective with the NYPD. His wifes murder had shattered his life, and he moved to a mountain retreat. When hes left in charge of the family business, his quiet life is turned upside down and he just cant seem to get the sexy weekend guest out of his mind. Shes running from the present, hes running from his past, and danger is nipping at their heels. Can they slow down long enough to think about a future together?
