

THE YOUNG MUSICIAN.

From the first Chapter: As for the boy, said Squire Pope, with his usual autocratic air, I shall place him in the poorhouse. But, Benjamin, said gentle Mrs. Pope, who had kindly and sympathetic heart, isn't that a little hard! Hard, Almira! said the squire, arching his eyebrows. I fail to comprehend your meaning. You know Phillip has been tenderly reared, and has always had a comfortable home--- He will have a comfortable home now, Mrs. Pope. Probably you are not aware that it cost the town two thousand dollars last year to maintain the almshouse. I can show you the item in the town report. I don't doubt it at all, husband, said Mrs. Pope gently. Of course you will know all about that being a public man.
